Adela: You are right in being "finicky" about your hair; it is for just such particular people as you that I always recommend canthrox. Its use will cure dandruff and make your "straight, oily" locks, full of vitality and fluffiness—much more attractive than artificial curling. Make this shampoo at home by dissolving a tempoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water. It is the most pleasing and effective shampoo I have ever tried.

Patricia: If ordinary face powders merely look artificial and fall to give lasting improvement, let me recommend a splendid liquid powder that you can easily grepare at home. You will find a great change in the length of time this preparation stays on. It seems a part of the skin. Dissolve 6 ounces of spurmax in half a pint of hot water, add 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine, let stand until cold, then cork tightly. This will not only give you a firm, healthy skin, but it is extremely beautifying, and entirely harmless.

Anne M.: Your rebellion against the "fat-and-forty" idea meets with my hearty approval. I have often advised against the carelessness which allows so many women to lose the figure while yet young and it is so unnecessary. Just get a ounces of parnouts, dissolve it in 1½ pints of hot water, strain it, and take a tablespoonful three times dally. It reduces weight slowly enough to permit a gradual tightening of the skin so there is no danger of sagging muscles and loose tissues. Exercise nilidy and bathe often, but the treatment requires no vigorous diet.

Hattie L.: You are rather young to worry about losing your good looks, but you are wise, however, in taking every precaution against the loss of your complexion and the coming of premature wrinkles. Keep the skin firm and the complexion clear with a nightly application, using this simple, inexpensive preparation. Mix together an ounce of almosoln, two teaspoonfuls giveerine and in pint cold water. Stir and let stand a few hours. This will give a healthy resistance to oily conditions of skin. Try this faithfully for awhile, and note how it encourages the natural contour without undue flesh. Most of the "dope" on the market is, as you say, helpless to cure the trouble.
